You'll Get All The Love That's Coming To You

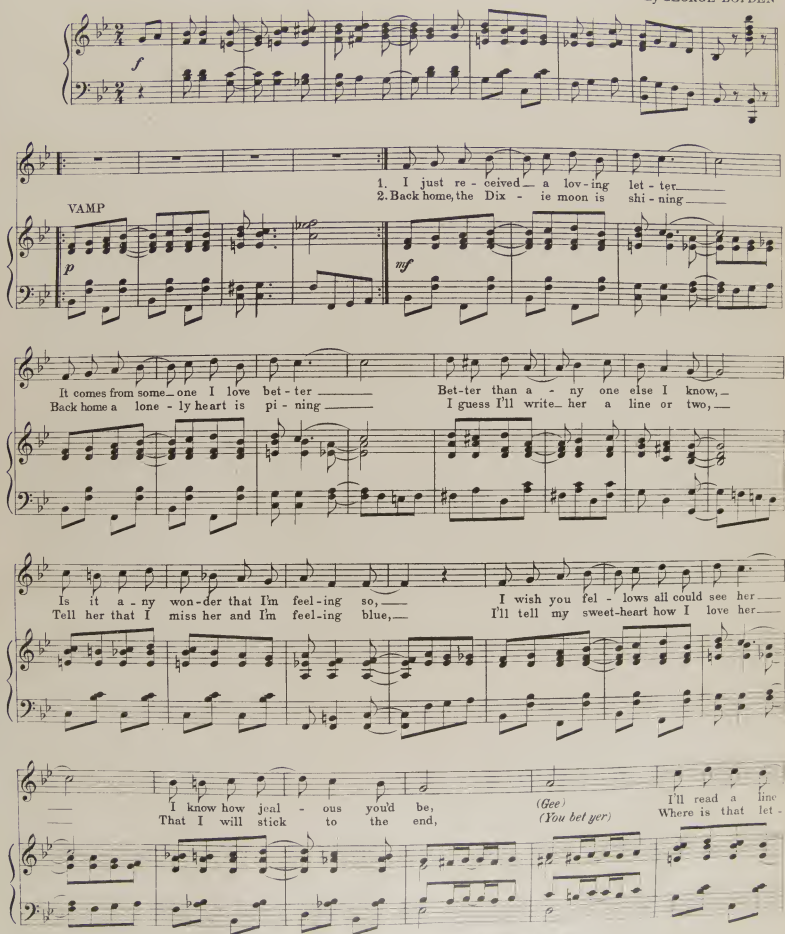
WORDS AND MUSIC BY GEORGE·L·BOYDEN.

GEORGE·L·BOYDEN
MUSIC PUBLISHER
№181 TREMONT ST.,
BOSTON MASS.

FISHER

"YOU'LL GET ALL THE LOVE THAT'S COMING TO YOU"

By GEORGE BOYDEN



f
1. I just re - ceived a lov - ing let - ter
2. Back home, the Dix - ie moon is shi - ning
VAMP
p mf
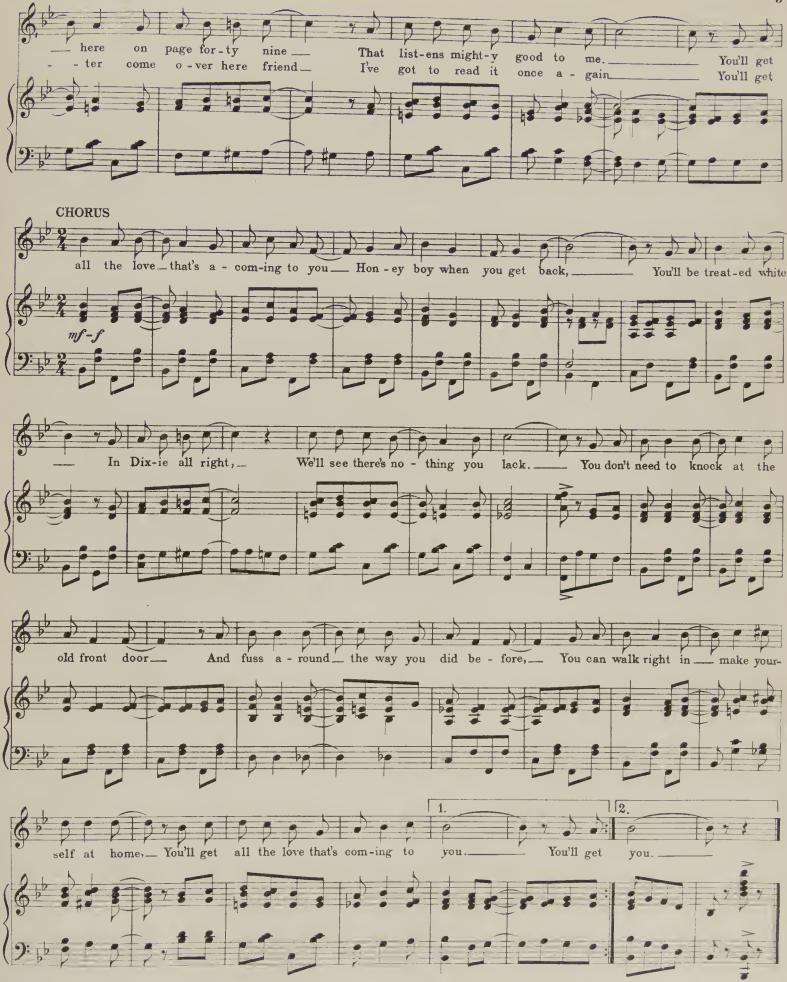
It comes from some - one I love bet - ter
Back home a lone - ly heart is pi - ning
Bet - ter than a - ny one else I know,
I guess I'll write her a line or two,
Is it a - ny won - der that I'm feel - ing so,
Tell her that I miss her and I'm feel - ing blue,
I wish you fel - lows all could see her
I'll tell my sweet - heart how I love her
I know how jeal - ous you'd be,
That I will stick to the end,
(Gee)
(You bet yer)
I'll read a line
Where is that let -

Copyright 1918 by George L. Boyden Music Publisher, Boston, Mass.
International Copyright Secured



here on page for-ty nine That list-ens might-y good to me. You'll get -ter come o-ver here friend I've got to read it once a-gain You'll get CHORUS
all the love that's a-com-ing to you Hon-ey boy when you get back, You'll be treat-ed white mf-f
In Dix-ie all right, We'll see there's no-thing you lack. You don't need to knock at the old front door And fuss a-round the way you did be-fore, You can walk right in make yourself at home, You'll get all the love that's com-ing to you. You'll get you.
1.
2.